75.5-02-03-01. Application. Requests for application forms must be made with the board's office. Applications for initial licensure, except licensure of applicants licensed in another jurisdiction, must include:

1. A completed, signed application form.
2. An official transcript showing proof of required degree submitted to the board's office by the academic institution from which the degree was earned.
3. Proof of successful completion of the appropriate examination submitted to the board's office by the administering body of the examination.
4. For applicants for licensed independent clinical social worker, a completed verification of master of social work supervised practice form and verification of master of social work employment form.
5. A minimum of three written references providing evidence of the applicant meeting the requirements for professional conduct and competence required under the licensing act.
  - a. Applicants never having worked as a social worker must submit one reference from a social work faculty member, one reference from a field placement supervisor, and one reference from a licensed social worker.
  - b. All other applicants must submit three references - two from social workers at the applicant's proposed level of licensure or higher, and one from a work supervisor. All providers of references must be familiar with the applicant's work.
  - c. In appropriate circumstances, the board may waive or change the requirements for references.

6. The proper fees.

It is the applicant's responsibility to distribute the forms to the appropriate individuals.

History: Effective January 1, 1987; amended effective April 1, 1998; February 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 43-41-09

Law Implemented: NDCC 43-41-04

75.5-02-03-02. License examination.

1. The license examination must be approved by the board. A passing examination score is valid only if the licensure application is postmarked or delivered to the board's office within one year from the date of the examination. The board shall certify the eligibility of all applicants and determine uniform passing and failing cutoff points. Students currently enrolled and in good standing in accredited social work programs may apply for and take the appropriate examination during the semester or quarter in which they will graduate. A license may not be granted until proof of graduation is received by the board.
2. With the exception of students in good standing in the last semester or quarter of an accredited social work program, only applicants who meet the educational requirements of a baccalaureate or graduate degree in social work from an accredited social work program may take the qualifying examination.
3. An applicant who fails the examination may retake the examination after ninety days from the initial examination date.

Law Implemented: NDCC 43-41-09

75.5-02-03-04. Provisional licenses. Repealed effective April 1, 1998.

75.5-02-03-04.1. Supervision of applicants for licensure as a licensed independent clinical social worker.

1. The applicant for licensure as a licensed independent clinical social worker must submit a plan for supervision to the board's office prior to beginning the process of working toward licensed independent clinical social work status, to include the name of the proposed supervisor and a copy of the supervisor's license. Should the supervisor change, a new plan must be submitted to the board's office by the applicant.
2. The applicants must participate in a minimum of one hundred fifty hours of face-to-face clinical supervision with a supervisor approved by the board. Not more than fifty hours of supervision may be group supervision.
3. The applicant must maintain a record of supervision, including dates, time, and content of supervisory sessions, should the board request same for verification purposes.
4. The applicant must complete and document a minimum of three thousand hours of supervised clinical social work experience during the four-year post-master's degree period.
  - a. Initial intakes, individual, couple, family, and group therapy as well as crisis intervention with assessment and stabilization are considered clinical experience.

- b. Related tasks included in clinical experience would encompass the provision and receipt of clinical supervision and case staffing, consultation related to therapy cases, and case management and paperwork for therapy cases.
  - c. Case management activities and brief assessments completed as part of other job responsibilities, not clients in therapy, will not be considered clinical experience.
- 5. The clinical supervisor must:
  - a. Evaluate the supervisee's knowledge and document minimal competencies in the areas of an identified theory base, application of a differential diagnosis, establishing and monitoring a treatment plan, development and appropriate use of the professional relationship, assessing the client for risk of imminent danger, and implementing a professional and ethical relationship with clients and colleagues.
  - b. Provide individual or group, or individual and group, face-to-face supervision.
  - c. Maintain documentation of supervision, including date, time, and content of supervisory sessions.

75.5-02-03-05. License renewal.

All licenses expire on December thirty-first of every odd-numbered year. On or before October sixteenth of every odd-numbered year, the board will send a notice of renewal and an application for renewal to each licensee at the last address provided to the board by each licensee. A completed application for renewal must be postmarked or delivered to the board's office on or before November fifteenth of the odd-numbered year. If a completed application is not postmarked or delivered to the board's office on or before November fifteenth of the odd-numbered year, the applicant must pay the late fee.

If a completed application for renewal is not received by the board's office on or before December thirty-first of the odd-numbered year, the license expires, and the person may not practice social work until a new application for initial licensure is made and license is granted by the board.

The board may waive the late fee or extend the expiration date for any applicant having proof of medical or other hardship rendering the applicant unable to timely file a completed application. A completed application for renewal must include:

1. Completed and signed renewal application form.
2. The license renewal fee.
3. Verification of required continuing education.

History: Effective January 1, 1987; amended effective April 1, 1998; February 1, 2004.
